

This is a Dundjini software version of the small frieghter from Knight Hawks. The observation deck is accessable by ladder mounted to the outside of the central elevator shaft. The second, larger lift provides access from the crew deck to the freight module docking hub and the engine mounts.

